MAJOR CHANGE IN FILING LOCATION FOR PETITIONS

On October, 2, 2023, USCIS posted a change in location for direct filing of Form I-129 petitions. Starting December 1, 2023, USCIS will reject any improperly filed petitions. For O and P petitions, the filing location is now the Texas Service Center, with suite numbers and Zip+4 differences depending on method of filing and whether requesting regular or Premium Processing.

Refer to the USCIS website on direct filing addresses for the Form I-129 for complete details and locations for other classifications.

When mailing petitions, the envelope must be clearly marked "Regular Processing" or "Premium Processing."

USCIS urges use of its online self-service applicant tools and to create an online account to check on the status of a case. For all other inquiries, petitioners may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. TDD (hearing impaired) – 800-767-1833. Hours of operation are Monday to Friday, 8am to 8pm Eastern.

With the USCIS receipt number, you may check the status of your case online. Bookmark this page! You can also check processing times from this link and set up an account so USCIS will automatically email you with any status updates on your case.

FEES and GENERAL NOTES:

Note: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) periodically increases petition filing fees, so always check uscis.gov for the latest fee amounts as well as the latest editions of forms:

- Form I-129 fee varies per petition depending on petitioner filing status, number of beneficiaries, and classification being sought. Be sure to use separate checks.
- We strongly recommend that O and P petitions be sent by overnight delivery (Federal express, UPS, etc.)
- Form I-907 (premium processing) payable by separate check.
- Use business or personal check, money order or cashier's check, payable to "Department of Homeland Security."
- ALWAYS mark the exterior of the envelope with the type of petition or application included, and for premium processing, if applicable.
- When filing more than one petition or application that are related, clip or rubber band them together under a sheet marked "Related Cases: Do Not Separate in Mailroom."
- General order of documents for I-129: fee payment, stapled to middle-left of I-907, if applicable; return FedEx mailer if I-907 used; fee payment stapled to middle-left of I-129; I-129 Supplement; return FedEx mailer if no I-907; beneficiary list if applicable, union consultation if applicable; cover letter outlining the benefit sought and identifying the attached support evidence; supporting documentation.
- Complete all blanks, using "N/A" or "None" where appropriate, but do not enter "N/A" if "None" is appropriate entry, and vice versa. Check form instructions for specific guidance.
- Submit certified, complete translations for all foreign language documents.
